

~ CHRISTY ROBERTSON WEARS THE PANTS IN THE ACS NATIONAL EVENTS AT THE RIVIERA

June 10, 2010 - by vb

Christy did, however, win the Speed Pool Event and retains the title of 2010 Women's Speed Pool Champion.

Her Women's Open 8-Ball Team - I Had A Plan (Pam Fletcher, Christy

Robertson, Amy Encinias, Paula Patterson and Pam Huntington) won the 2nd place trophy and $1,200 in the team event. It was very cool to have an all Vegas final match...they were defeated by the other Las Vegas women's team 7-11 Smokin 8's (Sondra Friestad, Rhonda Murray, Debra Aarens, Carrie Halvorson and Christina Kolkhorst) who all played exceptional.

In addition, Christy's team won the Best Dressed Award (how ironic!). It's been an awesome week for Christy...watch out, she's on a roll!
