

PUTTERS 1st Annual “Fall Shootout” Pool Tournament November 20-22, 2009

Presented by Chrome Soda

*November 1, 2009 ~ for immediate release by vbb

Putter's Bar & Grill (5025 S. Eastern Ave, Las Vegas, NV), will be the site for a 2 event pool tournament known as the 1st annual “Fall Shootout”. The event is sure to bring out all of the most skilled players in the Las Vegas area.

Both of these events will be presented by Chrome Soda. The “World Famous” Chrome Soda girls will be on hand all weekend and will also be the official score card holders for all of the televised final matches.

Competition kicks off on Friday night at 7:00 pm with a field of 32 teams challenging in a scotch doubles 9-Ball event. This will be a two person team event with a cap of 17 for the team's total rating. This handicap will be fun for players of all calibers from novice to professional.

The scotch doubles event will continue on Saturday morning at 11:00 AM in addition to 32 singles players kicking off in a separate battle for the 8-Ball Singles Crown. Finals for both the scotch doubles 9-Ball event and the 8-Ball singles event will be filmed for television by TV4U on Sunday afternoon.

Along with the finals, special segments of “Celebrity Pool, Make That Shot, and Queen of the Hill”, will also be recorded starring celebrities and top local Las Vegas players.

The Queen of the Hill finals features two of the best female players that Las Vegas has to offer. 2008 National BCAPL Player Member Champion Sunny Griffin will take on the 2009 ACS National 8 Ball Champion Amy Encinias.

The trick shot program will also feature two local stars. John Kutcher, one of a select few International Pool Tour (IPT) members in Las Vegas will go up against Bill Stock, the 4 time Alaska State Straight Pool Champion and the current National Director of referees for CueSports International (CSI).

In addition to Chrome Soda, this exciting weekend is also sponsored by the following: Cue Sports International (CSI), Diamond Billiard Products, Southern Nevada ‘9’ Ball Tavern Owners Association (SN’9’BTOA), Putter’s Bar & Grill, and TV4U.

Proceeds from this event will benefit the Academic Billiards Collective, a non-profit organization “dedicated to the concept that billiards can be utilized to improve education and motivate students to prepare for a challenging future ahead”. Visit <http://www.abcpoolproject.org> for more on the Academic Billiard Collective.

For more information about the event, please contact Putter's Bar & Grill at 702-891-0119.